Private eco-retreat w/ screened porch & wood stove - zipline on property!

This gorgeous, contemporary eco-retreat is located in the town of Tuckasegee at an elevation of 2,800 feet. Unique touches like a wood-burning stove and an outdoor shower help make this a special place. Beautifully situated on 11 private acres, this home features stunning architecture, a light-filled living area, and an upper-level master suite. Take in the outdoors on the screened porch, and watch your kids enjoy the play area with swings, a slide, and a tree platform with a 150-foot zipline (that supports up to 350 pounds). Pick wild blackberries and raspberries in the summer!

What's nearby:

Hiking and sightseeing can be found nearby, as well as in Panthertown Valley. See one of the area's several stunning waterfalls. The home is conveniently located between the towns of Cashiers and Sylva, only 15 minutes from Western Carolina University. Enjoy the close proximity to Dillsboro, Waynesville, Smoky Mountain National Park, Blue Ridge Parkway, and the Biltmore Estate.
